Book 1 and Book A Court Journals have been transferred to the Ohio Network of American History, District 3, at the University of Cincinnati, and acknowledgement is hereby made to the staff at the Archives for their cooperation and assistance, without which this project would have been much more difficult. Copies of these books are retained in Probate Court, Hamilton County Court House, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The spine of Book 1 is marked "Probate Record 1791-1821 Transferred from Common Pleas Ct. to Probate Court Feb'y 9th 1851", and Book A is similarly marked for the period 1821-1826. Pasted in front of Book 1 is a newspaper article from the Cincinnati Post dated March 17, 1915, Page 9, giving a brief history of the court house buildings. According to pencil notation in the front of Book 1 these books were rebound in 1910.

The entries have been abstracted in the order in which they appear in the original books. The first 213 pages of Book A duplicate many of the entries in Book 1, but not all entries are identical. The abstracts of Book 1 and Book A are bound together because there is so much overlapping.

Book 1 is the first part of this volume, and Book A abstracts are marked as such at the top of each page and index references to Book A are so identified. Page numbers shown in this volume are the pages of the original books from which the abstract was made. Book A has no frontispiece and the first page is numbered 4. After page 4 the numbering jumps to page 48. The index in the original book lists entries on intervening pages, and names therein with references to missing pages are shown at the end of the every name index. Many of these names have other entries and some are variations of names with other entries. In both books there are variations in the index spelling and the spelling in the entries. Where this has been noted in Book 1 it is shown by using parenthesis and the initials OI for original index, followed by the index spelling. This is done for Book A by showing both spellings divided by a slash.

Because of numerous repetitions of court sessions, the names of presiding judges have been abstracted into a separate index. These names and a referral to one page of the original material where they appear are shown on the page titled "Index of Court Officials" preceding the every name index. The title of the court in session is also shown.

Unless the entry is individually dated in the original, no dates are shown in the abstract except dates of court sessions, and time frame of the entries is within the date of the session heading and the date of the court session following.

Every effort has been made to abstract the entries as true to the original as possible and to abstract names as written. A few of the entries are repeated and some are garbled. Underlining of a letter or word (except court session headings) indicates the abstracter noted an apparent variation. There are spelling variations both in the original and in interpretation, especially in Book A, SO A WORD OF CAUTION: BE SURE TO CHECK ALL POSSIBLE SPELLINGS AND USE THE GIVEN NAME AS AN ADDITIONAL CHECK.

No first names have been abbreviated by the abstracters; those shown in the abstract are as they appear in the original material. However, to save space in the abstract, recurring words have been abbreviated. These abbreviations vary slightly for Book 1 and Book A. Both are shown below:
